A gift to the library is a wonderful way to…

- celebrate happy occasions such as the birthday of a child or special friend.
- partner with the library and your organization and provide materials of a particular area of interest.
- provide a lasting tribute in the memory of a friend or loved one.
- create a legacy to your community by bequeathing a donation in your will and enhancing local libraries. Consult your lawyer and accountant for details.

Materials purchased in honour of a person will carry an acknowledgement plate bearing the names of the honoured and the donor. Suggestions for the materials are welcome.

Donations of used materials such as books, CD's, and DVD's are accepted only if they meet the needs of the collection and on the condition that the library may dispose of the materials in whatever way it deems appropriate.

Donations of materials are generally not accepted if there are any conditions attached.

Any amount you wish to donate will be gratefully accepted.

All public libraries in Lambton County belong to one library system.

By working together

we reduce duplication and provide a more cost effective library service.

We share a central administration, bulk purchasing power, expertise, training, resources and more.

Our strength is in resource sharing.

Regular exchanges of materials and interbranch loan are the cornerstones of our service to you.

We share resources with public libraries across Ontario through interlibrary loan.

You can be assured that 100% of your donation will be kept in Lambton County.

LAMBTON COUNTY LIBRARY

supporting your library

☑ Yes! I want to give a gift of lasting support to my library.

Lambton County Library and their 26 branches are a vital community resource that fulfills the information and leisure needs of the residents of the county.

Your generous support will allow your local library to:

- Enhance collections.
- Provide programs such as children's storytime.
- Purchase computer equipment to meet customer demand for information technology.

Enrich the entire community and contribute to providing quality library service.

Please be assured that every item is carefully selected to reflect customer needs.
